ISI's Ostentatious Taliban Clergy Dominated Gathering in Kabul Exposed the Terror Nature of Taliban

*********

Declaring War to Opposing Views by Deceased Leader, Haibatullah the Ghost in Veil.

The new stage of the great game instigated in Afghanistan and its surrounding region after the rise of the Taliban in power. The people of Afghanistan and the region are well aware that the USA and Pakistan brought the Taliban to power after long-secret negotiations in Doha, the centre of Qatar, far from the expectation, awareness and participation of the Afghan people. More than seven thousand Taliban prisoners, who committed heinous crimes against the Afghan people, were released from the prisons and pretended as a precondition for peace talks. As a result of the terrorist operations of this group, thousands of people died in the explosion of roadside mines, suicide operations, and their highway blocks interception, and passenger vehicles inspection and interruption. Thousands of children were made orphaned and thousands of women widows and homeless.

The Taliban project in Pakistan was created to achieve the strategic goals of America in rivalry with the countries around Afghanistan, which include Russia, China, Iran and India. The program and supervision of the process of combat training, arming, and funding of terrorists is carried out in Pakistan and its religious schools. The increase and expansion of the activities of Taliban terrorists and their associates such as ISIS, Al-Qaeda, Buka Haram, etc. are carried out under the direct supervision of Inter-Services Intelligence (ISI) and its foreign supporters and allies. Analysts and observers of the regional situation have provided reliable evidence and reasons to prove their claims in published reports, articles and books. The Taliban is a Pakistani project for occupation of Afghanistan. Pakistan is trying to paint the Taliban group with some sort of legitimacy. For that reason, the was organised under the direct instruction of ISI in Kabul.

The three-day grand jirga meeting of the Taliban in Kabul was inconclusive and without any achievements. Their imaginary leader named Mullah Haibatullah was killed by the Haqqani terrorist network in Quetta in 2018. In this meeting, his audio speech was heard. But the speech was fake and did not have Haibatullah's voice. Haqqani is a Ghiljaei Pashtun from Paktia. The voice attributed to Taliban leader Mullah Haibatullah was recorded by ISI. But no one saw his face. There was a lot of noise in the foreign networks as if Mullah Haibatullah gave a speech at this gathering. This ridiculous show in these so-called grand meetings was mocked and ridiculed by the people of Afghanistan.

Even in the early days of Islam, Amir al-Mu'minin had to appear in front of the people and did not hide his face because no one pays attention to the hidden rulers and sultans. The ISI is trying to deceive the people by playing tricks and by issuing orders in the name of Mullah Haibatullah to make him appear as the ghost leader of the Taliban and Amir al-Mu'minin.

A leader who does not have character, integrity and presence has no value in the eyes of the people. Most of the participants who attended the meeting were invited selectively by ISI. The ISI spies can be seen all over Kabul. Just as during the time of the assassinated and butchered President of Pakistan, Zia-ul-Haq, some Mujahideen leaders like Abdul Rasul Sayyaf, the leader of Hezb-e- Ittihad-e-Islamic, said: “Kabul is the city of infidels. Men in Kabul are mubah-al-dum, which means killing them is allowed, and its women must be slaves.”

At present, anxiety and depression surround the atmosphere of Kabul. People's breathing channel is getting narrower day by day. Religious decrees are issued from the mouth of ISI in the name of Mullah Haibatullah. Speakers in the grant meeting, held in the Loya Jirga tent located behind the Kabul Technical University acknowledged and declared: “If the infidels (American and its allies) use atomic bombs on us, we will not allow women and do not listen to the infidels to interfere in our affairs as we defeated the “infidel Americans). Meanwhile, Amir Khan Mutaqi, the representative of the Taliban, went to Qatar to negotiate with the “American infidels.” The people of Afghanistan realise that the United States handed all military equipment of the National Army, worth over 85 million US dollars in a conspiracy with the help of its corrupt puppet government, to the Taliban to implement its long-term strategic goals in the region. The twenty-year-old puppet government was deposed and put the Taliban terrorists out to the chair. Thousands of people were killed and all the achievements of several years were destroyed.

The Taliban include all terrorists, including ISIS, Al-Qaeda, Buka Haram, and the like. The Taliban do not accept elections in the 21st century. They ask people to obey them and pay the ransom. They say, "God feeds the people, we are not responsible for providing food for the people."

They go to people's houses and force them to give them food, which means they take ransom from people. They fix their car at a mechanic; they don't pay and leave. The Taliban is a terrorist group. They live by the force of the sword. They are a group that grew up with the smell of cow dung and fed on camel's milk. Women's education is meaningless to them. If they allow the education of women under international pressure, there is no guarantee that the status of women will change in the Taliban regime. What do they learn in the Taliban's religious schools? They adapt the curriculum of Haqqani extremist religious madras (schools) in Pakistan. ISI and the Taliban are transferring Islamic extremist schools from Pakistan to Afghanistan

The people of Afghanistan know very well that their country is occupied by Pakistan. Their cultural, scientific, historical and literary values are being destroyed. The ISI program has destroyed even the pure traditions of the Pashtun people and continues to force them to disappear completely. The people of Afghanistan know that information and life under the flag of ignorance and superstition of the Taliban is permanent slavery.

The Taliban are like electrically programmed robots related to Pakistan's intelligence organization with the support and guidance of western intelligence centres. They operate under the leadership of the United States of America, and it has no will or plans to rebuild, develop, progress and ensure peace and tranquillity for the people. They do not have the capacity and ability to do so at all.

It is worth mentioning that the activities of the Taliban as "alien intelligence robots" will not remain limited to Afghanistan and will soon be transferred to the neighbouring countries by the US and its close allies. The Taliban are like cancer that will soon spread throughout the region and the world, even its supporters will not be safe from this virus. Iran, India, Central Asia and Russia are at risk to be affected by them. But will these countries just remain watching or will they break their backs? Certainly, the circle of war, unrest and chaos in the region is getting bigger and wider.

In the current situation, the hunting of Taliban continues in every corner, especially in the north of the country, Andaraba, Panjshir, Balkhab, Kabul and other areas.

Consequently, several Taliban are targeted by the fighters in guerrilla attacks every day. They are hunted every day in Kabul like birds. The emergence of the Taliban has been programmed. The main goal of the supporters of the Taliban terrorist group is to transfer the Pashtun residents of both sides of the Durand border to northern Afghanistan. Also, ISI is trying through its Taliban's proxy group to destroy and marginalize the Farsi-Dari language which is the dominant language of the majority of the people of Afghanistan and the common bond between its residents. Most of the Taliban are from Pakistan, they grew up there. Their first language is Urdu or a mixture of Pashto, English and Urdu, and they have no connection with the people of Afghanistan.

So, according to the words of knowledgeable Afghan analysts, the fall of the Taliban can be summed up in three elements: "being anti-Farsi-Dari, misogyny and the exclusion of women, half of the society, lack of economy and people's disgust." In the three-day meeting, the Taliban tried to pretend to the world that in the ostentatious grand assembly or gathering, the people accept the administration of the Taliban. While the absolute majority of the participants were from the Taliban group, the Pakistani schools. They have been for years under the direct supervision and management of the ISI. Therefore, they have no legitimacy in the eyes of the Afghan people. The purpose of holding this meeting in a situation where there are armed wars are going on against the Taliban in various places and dozens of Taliban are killed every day, is an attempt by ISI to divert the public's attention and hide popular uprisings against them so that the world thinks that the Taliban are in control of the country, even though the Taliban are not even there.

The Taliban are divided into several factions among themselves and could not preserve their unity in a short period. Based on eye witness, the non-Pashtun Taliban are replaced with the Taliban of Pashtun origin is a witness to wide division in the ranks of Taliban.

Pakistan Continue Ethnic Cleansing Operation in Afghanistan through its proxies, the Group of Taliban

The rebellion of Maulawi Mahdi, one of the Hazara commanders in Balkhab and the Taliban's campaign against him, the situation in northern Afghanistan has become tense. This tension accelerated the process of ethnic cleansing in the north, which was supposed to start later. But Mahdi's defiance of the Taliban provided the grounds for the implementation of the second ISI program in Afghanistan. After Panjshir and Andraba, Balkhab is the third region that, despite the silence of the Taliban, indicates the existence of military geography of resistance against the Taliban's totalitarianism. Although the tension in the north started after Mahdi's defiance against the Taliban. However, the situation in the north was tense and the clashes between Mehdi and the Taliban forces sparked the war and accelerated the process of ethnic cleansing there. It is clear to everyone that ISI is managing the Taliban militarily and politically, and they are giving a practical aspect to the Politicization of Afghanistan.

As Mr Mashid, an Afghan analyst pointed out in his article entitled, "Ethnic cleansing of the second stage of the ISI war in northern Afghanistan" pointed out. "The project of destroying Afghanistan by Pakistan started after the formation of Pakistan in 1948, which got a new dimension after the uprising of the youth of Afghanistan in 1975. Before that, Pakistan's policies in Afghanistan were defensive and then offensive. Pakistani generals found a golden opportunity to intervene in Afghanistan after the Soviet invasion. Hamid Gül, Akhtar Abdur Rahman and Ziaul Haq during the Jihad period instigated organizational conflicts on the war fronts among the Mujahideen and thus made Jihadi leaders its mercenaries. By supporting Hekmatyar, Pakistan ignited bloody wars in Kabul. The achievements of Jihad in freeing Afghanistan looted the people of Afghanistan. Later, by getting the support of Hekmatyar, the Pakistani military found the Taliban to be a more desirable wage brought them to power and stood against the Mujaheddin government under the name of evil and corruption. It is obvious to everyone that Pakistan recognized their government in the first round of Taliban rule and managed it. Pakistan, due to the surrendering a flexibility attitude of several Pashtun leaders of Jihadi and Taliban origin and the Khaki Communist Faction of the PDPA, like Shah Nawaz Tani, the former defence minister of Afghanistan in Najibullah government and later the western selected corrupt technocrats like Ghani, was able to use them politically and militarily at an awful level.

During all this time, Pakistan, in collusion with America and even England, has played the ethnic card in Afghanistan. In this game, it has traditionally trusted politicians and rulers of Pashtun origin more. According to them, Tajiks, Hazaras and Uzbeks are far from the centre of their games and are inclined towards Russia. Pakistan's support for Hekmatyar in collusion with the US and leading him to Masoud's war despite the opposition of the leaders of Islamic movements such as; Qazi Hussain Ahmed, the leader of Jamaat-e-Islamic Pakistan, Muhammad Qutub, one of the leaders of the Muslim Brotherhood in Egypt, and even Osama, have their roots in the ethnic games of ISI against the people of Afghanistan. Before that, Pakistan forced Hekmatyar to support the coup d'état against Dr

Najib. This support led to strong reactions even within Hezb-e-Islamic, and Hekmatyar was questioned by the executive members of Hezb-e-Islamic. Hekmatyar's support for the body made his ethnic identity more obvious and his jihad was not sacred against the pro-soviet government of the former USSR. This caused Masoud to form an alliance with Dostum and Mazari and the Parcham faction of the PDPA in Jabal Siraj. However, after the formation of the Mujahideen government in Peshawar in 1992, Masoud did not stick to this coalition and, according to Bismillah Mohammadi, former defence minister in the pro-Western government and a former commander of Masoud, refused to talk to Mahmoud Baryalai the then Parcham leader and brother of president Babrak Karmal.”

Pakistan has managed to fund and equip the Taliban with one hand and pamper corrupt and traitorous politicians and leaders like Karzai and Ghani with the other hand until it handed over Ghani to the Haqqani network. During this period, Pakistan not only played multiple games in Afghanistan with the ethnic card; Rather, ethnic cleansing in Afghanistan is at the top of its plans. The wars that started after Panjshir and Andraba in Balkhab all indicate ethnic cleansing. As before, the Pashtun Taliban clashed with Qari Salahuddin Ayubi, one of the Uzbek commanders in Qaisar, Faryab province, and Khan Mohammad, the Tajik commander in Chal Takhar district.

After that, the rebellion of Maulawi Mehdi Mujahid, the commander of Hazara origin, started against the Taliban in the Balkhab district of Saripul province. Mahdi's rebellion started after he was removed from the post of Bamiyan intelligence chief. This dismissal forced Mahdi to protest against the Taliban. He later demanded the rights of Shiites. But the Taliban declined his request and marched under the command of Fasihuddin Badakhshani to suppress him. Choosing Fasihuddin to fight with Mahdi is the sinister plan of the Taliban and ISI to take Afghanistan to the brink of ethnic wars and ethnic cleansing to the point of genocide. The Taliban's disregard for Mahdi's request and the Taliban's campaign against him. The mobilization of northern fighters to kill or arrest Mahdi is a clear sign and expresses the true nature of the Taliban as an ethnic group acting as proxies of foreign intelligence services in a totalitarian fashion. They are the enemies of Afghanistan's stability, and Pakistan has undertaken the mission of ethnic cleansing in Afghanistan. The Taliban have attacked the Mahdi forces several times and have suffered heavy casualties and even bombed the house of Maulvi Mahdi. But it is said that he was not harmed. The bombing of Mahdi's house made the ethnic identity nature of the Taliban more obvious and proved that the Taliban do not believe in any red line and will remove any obstacle from their way cruelly.

Based in Madhi's speeches, even though he is still a member of the Taliban group and has fought for the Taliban for years. He still has not declared his innocence from the Taliban. If Maulawi Mahdi wants to bring the public opinion with him and on the other hand, he also has the support of the Taliban opposition. At this important juncture, he should clarify his duties with the Taliban to get more political, military and logistical support from the Taliban opponents. The announcement of Mahdi's position against the Taliban will force other Tajik and Uzbek commanders to take a stand against the Taliban and support him. The stability of Mehdi's campaign against the Taliban gives a new dimension and vigour to the resistance of Tajik and Uzbek leaders. The Taliban's campaign against Mahdi and the Taliban's disregard for his demands have forced all Tajik and Uzbek Taliban commanders to make new decisions against the Taliban government. They have understood that tomorrow they will be faced with the destiny of Mahdi and will be victims of the ethnic cleansing program of ISI and Taliban. Before these commanders become victims and are forced to strengthen their determination to confront the Taliban and support Mahdi; there is still a risk that Mahdi will be a victim of the Taliban.

As a result of the request of scholars and students of Balkhab, Shia Ulema Council sent a delegation to this region to prevent the spread of war. Although the board's efforts have not yet yielded results, the risk of trapping Mahdi still exists. The Shia Council rejected the war and called for peace between the government and the Mahdi. Amazingly, this council has called Mahdi to peace while the Taliban has not paid the slightest attention to the request of this council for the past nine months. In the meantime, Mahdi may have understood that any deal he makes with the Taliban will result in severe retaliation from them, and he will be accused of murdering Taliban gunmen, and in the final analysis, he will be a victim of Pakistan's ethnic cleansing plan.

It is clear to everyone that the Taliban is a tool in the hands of Pakistan's ISI and that this hellish organization has a program of ethnic cleansing, especially in northern Afghanistan. As several thousands of Pakistani and Taliban forces were transferred from Kunduz to Karachi and Quetta in the first round of the fall of the Taliban government in collusion with the United States, the Pakistani military began to mobilize them again and in 2003 they entered the battlefields with American soldiers.

Now that the Taliban have come to power in Kabul. The second stage of the plan, which is ethnic cleansing in the north, has begun. Pakistan considers Afghanistan as the depth of its strategy in the war with India and has never given up on this claim and has invested heavily in it. The least carelessness of Uzbek and Tajik and Hazara commanders of the Taliban will destroy the remaining chances and they will soon fall under the premature plots of the Taliban and the ISI. Now, Mahdi's disobedience has forced the Taliban and ISI to implement the ethnic cleansing program early. This means sounding the alarm bell in the north, especially to the commanders of Tajik, Uzbek and Hazara descent, so that before they become victims of the sinister goals of the Taliban and the purification of Pakistani descent strategy. They need to work to survive and fight against the conspiracy of ISI and let their mercenaries get to work. The slightest delay, procrastination, and waiting for pity from the sharp-toothed leopards of Talib will involve irreparable dangers, which will be more difficult and dangerous to remedy tomorrow." The time has come for all the forces opposing the Taliban to join hands and create a big military and political front against the Taliban. Any procrastination and waiting for others' decisions is an unforgivable sin and will be condemned by future generations.
