Al- Qaeda Leader, al-Zawahiri Targeted after 20 Years Living in the Haven of ISI. A theme for President Biden's Boosting Popularity.

With the news of al-Zawahiri's death, a sharp difference has emerged between the Haqqani group and Mullah Baradar. Anas Haqqani, Minister of Higher Education and Khalil Haqqani, the minister of refugees for the illegitimate Islamic Emirate of Taliban in Afghanistan, is connected to Pakistani intelligence. Reports from different sources from Kabul indicate that Zawahiri's hiding place was revealed by three people to the US intelligence operators, mainly by Amir Khan Motaqi, the head of the foreign ministry of the Taliban's terrorist organization, Mullah Yaqoob, the defence minister and the fake son of Mullah Omar Kandhari, the founder of the Taliban (1) and Mullah brother from the Kandhari network who was one of the peace delegations in Doha meeting. The reports claim that Mullah Yaqoob, in a secret meeting, entrusted Zawahiri's residence and hideout to the executors of the operation through the Emir of Qatar. The competition between these two groups of the Taliban had already been aired and published several times in the media, and Mullah Yaqoob was attacked several times by the Haqqani network, but he survived. The Haqqani network is more powerful than the Mullah Baradar and Mullah Yaqoob network, and it had the full support of Pakistan's intelligence. Also, General Musharraf former president said, "Haqqani is our hero". They pushed Mullah Baradar to the sidelines. During the government of Ashraf Ghani, this network planned and executed complex terrorist operations in different parts of Afghanistan with the support and guidance of Pakistani military experts and Al-Qaeda terrorist operators. Terrorist operations killed more than 100,000 military forces and over 100,000 civilians. On the side of Daesh, this group chants the slogan of establishing a grand Islamic caliphate, and the Salafist Tahrir Party in Pakistan had close relations with them and in many cases conducted joint operations with the Taliban, and as terror partner networks fund them. In the words of Mr Izidiyar, the former deputy of the National Council or Parliament of Afghanistan, " then the location of these groups and how they were used in the past is known to be a mysterious intelligence operation. The performance of the Taliban in the last twenty years proves that they have used Al-Qaeda terrorists on a large scale. The Taliban disgraced themselves with this act of giving haven to al-Zawahiri, even though the Pakistani and American secret operation detection networks were not unaware of its years before. Now, with the disclosure of the hiding place of the Al-Qaeda leader, a deep division and disagreement among the Taliban has been created. Soon revenge will begin between the Haqqani network and Mullah Baradar and Mullah Yaqoob. Now, their movement towards Kandahar, Khost and Paktika proves this claim. America had set 25 million dollars on Haqqani's head. Without the notification of the Haqqani Taliban opposition group, no one would have known about this secret, especially since no one else lived in the safe and green area of Wazir Akbar Khan and Shirpur, except the high-ranking Taliban leaders. Mr Saeedi, the former diplomat of Afghanistan in the regime of Hamid Karzai and the ambassador of Afghanistan in Pakistan, talks about this operation. "Al-Zawahiri's wife, son and grandson and Zainullah Haqqani's family lived in this residence during the US drone attack. Shahabuddin Haqqani's son and son-in-law were also killed. But Haqqani himself had already been transferred to a safe place by ISI. The American unmanned aerial vehicle, drone, flew from Shamsi Airfield" also known as Bhandari Airstrip, an airfield located about 320 km southwest of Quetta and about 400 km northwest of Gwadar in the Baluchistan of Pakistan. Quetta airport was in agreement with ISI, and it was impossible to carry out the operation without joint coordination with ISI. At present, the leaders of the Taliban such as Mullah Mutaqi, Abdul Bahari Haqqani, and Mullah Yaqoob are not in Kabul.

What was the reason for the American drone attack at this point?

According to most informed analysts inside and outside of Afghanistan, this attack was formed to retaliate for President Biden's irreparable mistakes, to divert the minds of the American people from monetary inflation, economic problems, and the election campaign of the Democratic Party in the mid-term elections of the Senate. This scenario was formed again after ten years of the story of the killing of Ben Laden during the Obama presidency, and it is completely similar to it. Also, Pakistan, which is the centre of the evil gathering, educates and equips extremist groups and terrorist forces, due to its economic problems as before, expects to receive money for the revival of its broken economy in return for this evil game. Pakistan is currently facing a severe economic crisis and downturn. To save itself looks like a wounded beast that sacrifices his hand-raised babies, the Taliban, so that it may be able to open a new page of the game and continue like in the past forty years in Afghanistan, importing terror groups any where needed. According to Mr Habibullah Hossam, an Afghan scholar and analyst, "The US and its partners are trying to repeat the scenario of the Bonn Conference, where Hamid Karzai, the main supporter of the Taliban, was kept in the leadership of Afghanistan for 14 years under the name of democracy and fraudulent elections." Then Ashraf Ghani, a political clown, was imposed on the people in the name of the second world think tank. While all the people of Afghanistan know him to be mentally ill, incompetent, nationalist, and a weak and stupid character. The two puppet leaders and their teams' work did not come to power by the will of the Afghan people but in an election full of fraud by the occupants set- up in advance. Their achievement was two hundred thousand military and civilian casualties of the Afghan people, the destruction of the country, administrative corruption, robbery and theft, and the promotion of prostitution even among ten-year-old girls.

Ashraf Ghani's government evacuated the military garrisons to the Haqqani terrorist group and surrendered the military units to their fellow terrorists, according to the advice of Pakistan. After 18 months of negotiations in Doha behind closed doors, all the articles contained in the peace agreement were not revealed, except for a few general articles. The people of Afghanistan were in a complete information vacuum, and the military units surrendered to the Taliban terrorist group. They took refuge in the centre of Kabul against the commitment made at the Doha peace meeting, and today this scenario is implemented in a different way. The people of Afghanistan know very well that the media of the western world promote the goals of the big powers. In the existence of two puppets, Ashraf Ghani and Hamid Karzai, seductive and attractive words such as respect for human rights, democracy, social justice, transparency and accountability, transparent elections, and the like were used as a tool, except for empty propaganda. It has not had any consequences for the people of Afghanistan. Mullah Baradar and Mullah Yaqoub most likely provided information about the hiding place of Americans. Local people say that before the air attack on al-Zawahiri's residence, Sirajuddin Haqqani and ten to twelve vehicles from the Pakistani embassy used to commute regularly there for two months.

Gulbuddin Hekmatyar, known as the butcher and destroyer of Kabul in the early 90s, fled to Peshawar with his family one day before the attack on Zawahiri's residence. Also, two or three other places were targeted in the attack in Deh Mazang in Kabul and Khushal Mina where the Pakistani Taliban were staying. For twenty-eight years, the Taliban have waged a proxy war to destroy Afghanistan and massacre its people. Mullah Yaqoub is kissing the gates of Indians and Americans so that he can stay in power. During the occupation of Afghanistan, the construction of hundreds of imaginary schools was mentioned. Ethnic disunity reached its peak. Thousands of men, women, children, civilian and military people were killed and the corrupt system collapsed. After returning from Qatar, Mullah Yaqoub transferred his three military units to Kandahar, namely, Badri, the Suicidal group, and Muhajireen (Refugees) or Ansar.

The future looks dark and the number of terrorist organisations increases significantly. The Taliban forces joined the Al-Qaeda terrorist group. The Taliban battle fronts are on the run, and with this political gamble, mysterious movements increase. The number of flags of each group will be waved in different places and Afghanistan has entered another stage of tragedy in the new intelligence game. In this dirty game, the interests of the Afghan people will not be discussed in any way. »

Kandhari Taliban were not in Kabul when the operation was carried out. Whenever the Taliban are under pressure, they go to Doha to talk about the transitional government. In these games, Pakistan is actively involved because the country's survival has been based on growing enthusiasm since its inception. Pakistan destroyed three rounds of Afghan governments. Anti-Pakistan fronts are still being formed. India, Iran and Turkey are worried about the deterioration of the situation in the region and each of them is forming a front on its behalf. In this way, inside Afghanistan, two hostile poles of Haqqani and Mullah Baradar are being formed from the south (Paktia) and the west (Kandahar). Therefore, the interventions and tension in the proxy game of the powers in the world, the Afghanistan region which drags it into the internal conflict and a tragic disaster will be imposed on our nation and people. Therefore, the only solution is national unity to save the country. It should not be forgotten that, as in the past, no temporary government came to one of our foreign countries and it is not effective, but it is a repetition of the mistake of the Bonn Conference. Therefore, the will and national unity are the only way out of the current deplorable situation. The Taliban have no role in a unified Afghanistan except as a means of achieving the goals of foreigners and fuel for intelligence games. Of course, the formation of national unity in the current difficult situation takes time. Afghanistan currently remains a corpse that every animal from the hippopotamus to the jackal and from the wolf and fox to the leopard and tiger attacks.

As long as patriotic people, regardless of their opinions, political beliefs, language, ethnic affiliation, and place of birth do not unite with a feeling of national solidarity to save it, our country will be experiencing difficult days and the repetition of unimaginable disasters will be seen. I hope that contrary to what I see, the situation is not bleak and a clear horizon emerges from behind the thick clouds.

In conclusion:

It needs to be iterated contrarily to what some people think that the ISI, with the help of a Pakistani Mulla, was able to identify the hiding place of al-Zawahiri and other top al-Qaeda leaders and report it to the Pakistani Inter-intelligence Service (ISI). Also, a search was conducted to discover and target the residential address of the Pakistani Taliban leaders in Afghanistan. How ludicrous it sounds! Even a layman in Afghanistan knows that the Pakistani high-ranking officials and some troops are stationed in Shirpur and Wazir Akber Khan areas in Kabul city. Since the Taliban entered Kabul on 15 August 2021, the ISI staff and operatives have been active in all Afghan Government departments along with the Taliban. Afghanistan is currently under the occupation of Pakistan. The attack was organised either from the US army base in Qatar or from Quetta in Pakistan. Various sources iterate the situation differently, no matter how it happened, it was coordinated by the US and Pakistan intelligence Installations. However, some people just repeat the same story which is propagated by western news outlets. Undoubtedly, the drone attack was organised by Pakistan in collaboration with the USA at a time when US president Joe Biden's popularity has dropped to its lowest level and the US was experiencing a sharp economic downturn and, inflation is hiking. People are stung by the overall increase in prices and the increase in the cost of living in a country. The consequences of the attack on Al-Zawahiri will further intensify distrust among different factions of the Taliban in the hypothetical killing of the Al-Qaeda terror organisation's leader. This terror organisation was fighting in cooperation with the US and its allies closely against the USSR and the pro-Soviet former Afghan government. The security situation in Afghanistan will deteriorate which is no need to expound on it here. It would likely lead to further conflict among the Taliban groups causing distrust, and exacerbating instability. It is also likely that the scenario was orchestrated in negotiation with all parties involved. In my view, the current problem in Afghanistan is closely linked to the lack of leadership, domination of extremist Islamic thought, illiteracy and absence of national unity and solidarity. Otherwise, with an uprising of people in Afghanistan, the situation will change. There are hundreds of opportunistic elements from the former fake American installed regimes in Afghanistan along with opportunistic tribal elements who are siding with the Taliban which stand as hindering factors for the continuation of the chaotic situation since the Taliban took over power in Kabul.
